

The Information Please Women's Almanac

Next fall, Houghton Mifflin will publish The Information Please Women's Almanac, the ultimate collection of statistics, resources, associations, books and general information on women and women's issues.

Houghton publishes more than 1,000,000 copies of its almanacs every year, covering areas as diverse as business, sports and the environment. The Women's Almanac is designed as a low-cost, general interest book that will meet widespread acceptance.

Some of the many topics included in the Almanac:

- Women's Health Equity Act
- Working Woman's Top 25 Women Business Owners
- Family and Medical Leave Act, 1993
- Recommended pre-natal services
- Breast cancer support groups
- Campus safety
- Contacting NOW, NARAL, and Planned Parenthood
- Statistics on pornography and violence
- Resources for lesbians and bisexual women
- Statistics on women in politics
- Discrimination and harassment
- The glass ceiling
- Child care
- Women office holders state by state
- Requirements of Title IX

Some of the many organizations included in the Almanac:

- American Women's Economic Development Corporation
- 9 to 5, the National Association of Working Women
- The Women's Legal Defense Fund
- National Latina Health Organization
- The National Coalition Against Domestic Violence
- The Women's History Project
- Women Work! The National Network for Women's Employment
- The Center for Women Policy Studies
- National Association of Minority Women in Business
- The National Women's Health Network
- The National Women's Political Caucus
- EMILY's List
- The Alan Guttmacher Institute
- Older Women's League

The Information Please Women's Almanac

First edition to be published in 1994 by Houghton Mifflin

Produced by SGP, Inc. • 145 Pelisade St. • Dobbs Ferry, NY 10522 • fax (914) 664-4615 • phone (914) 603-7711