

us who provide health care services have been rationing health care for a long time. We welcome reform but we also want to be absolutely sure that Indian patients are not swallowed up by whatever system is developed."