

It has been suggested that the Indians should be recognized by allowing them one of the United States senators, and friends of Gov. Brown hope to see him come to Washington in that capacity. -- Washington Herald.