

elections will occur all over the Seminole nation for the election of councilmen and band officers. On the 25th of August council will convene for general purposes. One of the first duties of the new council will be the election of the balance of the national officers. The national treasurer, national school superintendent and national physician are important offices to be filled at the time, besides minor offices.