

forestalling its possible hardship on their people.

The Committee on Indian Affairs has definitely determined to postpone action on the Curtis bill to its second February meeting which will be on the 13th.