

eye-lids and temples, and put a supply of it on the eyes themselves. As the trouble did not disappear he put on some more of the salve in the same way, and then it began to get serious. Dr. Riddle thinks his eyes were poisoned by something in the preparation. The St. Louis specialist assured Gov. Brown that he would not lose his eyesight. -- Globe Democrat.