

34. Be it enacted by the General Council of the Creek nation That no person shall receive damages for injuries done their crops unless they have a fence nine rails high staked and ridered and when they have lawful fences around their farms, and the stock of another individual injures their crops they shall be entitled to damages the damages to be assessed(sic) by two disinterested persons.

35. And be it further enacted that should any person injure the stock of another while he has not a lawful fence he or she shall pay such damages as shall be assessed(sic) by two disinterested persons.

36. Be it further enacted That if any person or persons shall set the woods or Prairies on fire, and the fire should damage another individual in person or property, the offender shall pay such damages as shall be assessed by two disinterested persons.

37. Be it enacted That should any person apprehend a runaway negro and deliver him to his owner, who shall be a citizen of the Creek Nation he shall receive twenty five Dollars but should said owner not reside within the limits of this nation, he or she shall pay fifty Dollars.

38. And be it further enacted That should any individual of this nation refuse to pay his just debts it shall be the duty of the Light Horse to proceed and collect the debt out of any effects that may be found in his possession.