

39. Be it further enacted by the National Council that no debt contracted by a citizen of this nation with an individual of another nation shall be collected.

40. Be it enacted by the general council of the Creek nation the last will and testament of any citizen of the nation shall be valid, and should any citizen of this nation die without making a will, not having an opportunity to do so, and should express before two respectable witnesses the manner in which they wish their affects(sic) disposed of, it shall be valid. No will shall be valid unless the testator shall have been in his or her proper mind and testified to by two respectable witnesses.

41. And be it further enacted that if any person dies without a will having property and children it shall be equally divided among them by disinterested persons and in all cases where there are no children the nearest relatives shall inherit the property.

42. And be it further enacted That no citizen or other person of this nation shall bring any claim against a deceased person without two respectable Witnesses who shall have been present at the time the claim created or shall hold his or her obligation in either case where the deceased has property it shall be collected otherwise the claim shall not be good.

43. And be it further enacted That no Will shall be valid where it is proven that it was made to avoid