

91. Be it enacted That in order to extend to all Creeks the means of a common education there shall be established throughout the nation fourteen schools an equal number in each district.

92. Be it enacted That there shall be elected by the General Council once in every four years two Superintendents of Schools, one from each District who shall appoint a bord(sic) of Trustees for each and every school consisting of at least three persons who shall hold their office during the pleasure of the Superintendent.

93. Be it further enacted That it shall be the duty of the Superintendent of Schools to see that good comfortable houses are erected and such schools established as provided for above to visit the same at least four times in each year and report the progress and condition annually to the General Council to receive and receipt for all monies placed into their hands by the Treasurer of the Creek Nation and disburse the same in defraying the expences of the several schools herein provided for which shall ^(?)exceed the sum of Six Thousand Dollars.

94. Be it further enacted that the Superintendants before entering upon the duties of their office shall be required to give bond with good security which shall be executed in favor of the Creek Nation.

95. Be it further enacted that it shall be the duty of the Superintendants of the Schools to report annually to the General Council the amount of funds received from the Treasurer