

gates of the M. E. Church, South, to the great Ecumenical Conference of the Methodists of the world at London, England, September 7, 1881. He was also a delegate to the centenary conference which was to meet at Baltimore in December, 1884, but before that period arrived he had been called to a higher position -- the general assembly of the church of the first born in heaven.