

Whereas, it has pleased an Almighty Providence to remove from our midst our venerable Friends and fellow Countrymen, the Hon. Coleman Cole, Hon. William Robuck, and the Rev^o Peter Folsom, a decent regard for their memory requires that some public token should be given of the high appreciation in which they were held by their fellow-citizens.

The Hon. Coleman Cole was twice chosen Principal Chief of this Nation by the suffrages of his people, the duties of which were performed by him with honor and credit to himself and advantage to the Country. He was a man of sterling integrity and though ~~him~~ of limited education, was blessed with sound judgment and possessed executive abilities to an eminent degree. He was ever faithful to his trust and was a true patriot.

The Hon. William Robuck filled the Office of Auditor of the Choctaw Nation, with credit to himself and fidelity to his trust and died while occupying the honorable position of Senator from Tiamiche County.

The very venerable and Reverend Peter Folsom was a man noted for his piety and Christian virtues. His name was well known,
