CHOCTAW TREATY OPPOSITION

Washington, Jan. 22. --

Secretary Francis is finding a great deal of opposition in the way of the Choctaw treaty. In addition to a large number of written protests, several delegations from the territory have presented reasons why the treaty should not be approved. Messrs. Jackson and Dukes called today to make a protest. Their objections turn on the question of royalties to be paid the Indians on coal leases. The Secretary has not yet decided when to send the treaty to congress but is daily expected to do so. In the course of a few days he will name a new land official at Mangum, Greer county and has promised to appoint the Wichita allotting agent as soon as he can find time to take up the matter.
