Henderson, Tenn. May 1 1877.

Mr. Ward Coachman:

Dear Sir, Your kind letter came duly to hand. I am glad to hear you express a wish to be with us. I know that your coming will much encourage the young men. We will be so glad to have you with us. In my last letter I wrote you that it was about 240 miles to St Louis. It cannot be much more than that. One of our merchants has since said that it is 300.

Charley is well. His health has been good all the time. We have no sickness in school now.

I hope to hear from you soon.

Very Respectfully,

G. M. Savage.
