Dear Friend:

I want you to accept with my personal compliments and those of the people of the City of Chicago, the enclosed courtesy card, which, no doubt, you will find of assistance to you in securing more readily, certain services and courtesies while you are with us during the Democratic National Convention. Upon presentation of this card, the police are instructed to extend every courtesy to you.

This card also carries the following privileges:

Through the efforts of Hon. Emmett Whealan, President of the County Board, you are extended the courtesies of the following golf courses during your stay in Chicago: Palos Park (South), Edgebrook (West), Northwestern (North).

This card will also gain admittance to the track and club house at Arlington Park Jockey Club.

If presented at the press gate of Wrigley Field on Thursday, Friday or Saturday of this week, it will admit you to the Cubs Ball Park.

It will also be honored on June 29th and June 30th at all Balaban & Katz theatres, which include the Chicago, Oriental, United Artists and Roosevelt in the loop, the Uptown on the North side, and the Tivoli on the South side. It will be honored from Monday through Friday of this week at the Palace Theatre and the State-Lake Theatre, both of which are in the loop.

It will also admit you to the Shedd Aquarium, Field Museum, Adler Planetarium and Riverview Park.

I want you to know that Chicago is proud to be your host this year at the national meeting of your party and we want your stay with us to be as pleasant as we can possibly make it. Chicago is yours while you are here. Please ask any member of Chicago's entertainment and reception committees for any information you may wish.

Very truly yours,

Mayor.

P.S. And don't forget that we are expecting you back next year for A Century of Progress.
