Hon. J. S. Cobb

Newaka Okla.

My boy

The stand you and Guy Cullip have taken in regard to J. W. Whitfield's rulings, is meeting with commendations of our best-people.

I once begged you to end our "Reign of Terror," if possible, and I think you begin to understand that Whitfield and Thompson are dangerous men.

Whitfield's last act in sending his girl (not a pupil) to school to whip another girl, reveals the character of the man he is.

Please give my regards, as this letter to Guy.

Yours Always, (for what's right-)
