El Reno, March 17th, 1930 19

To G. Guy Cutlip

Street and No. President Chamber Commerce

Place Wewoka, Okla

~~Congratulations to you and your good citizenship. Thanks for you kind invitation to be present at festivatives. I well remember when through the earnest efforts of you and your fine, upstanding committee you baragined with the Rock Island to build your industrial spur in 1923. We were too glad to accomodate, but for you, Col. Key, S.W.Lane, W.L.Thurston and C.D.Keith there might have been another story to tell down in that section.~~

~~Am sorry I cannot be present, would enjoy it and being with my old friends there, but allow me to wish for Wewoka and Seminole county the continued prosperity it has enjoyed the last seven years.,~~

J. Van Hecke
Superintendent Rock Island Lines
