

STATE AUDITOR
STATE OF OKLAHOMA
OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLAHOMA

January 27, 1938

My dears:

It was hard for me to come away and leave you yesterday but I know that you both understand that my work was the reason. You know I forgot to get permission to come - but it was all right with Mr. Childers when I talked to him this morning - he is so kind and sympathetic.

I know that Claude D., Mrs. Elam and Mildred will take good care of you - they are all so capable.

Later on I want to come down - but in the meantime I want you to know that I love you both and that my thoughts will be constantly with you.

Sincerely yours,

Pat B.

Dear Mrs. Cutlip:

I am writing to you at this time to extend my deepest sympathy in this your great hour of bereavement. A court session in which many cases were assigned on the docket and attorneys were here from all over the state did not permit me to be present at the funeral of your husband this afternoon.

While I had not known Judge Cutlip as intimately as I should have desired, I met him while I was a candidate for Judge of the Criminal Court of Appeals, and I shall always remember the many kindnesses he did me during that time.

He was one of the pioneers of this State who helped to build a civilization here in Oklahoma of which the younger generation may be proud, and while his loss will be great to you, the thought that he has had a leading part in building the history of this state, and the fine influence he has exercised upon the Bench and Bar of this State will be a kindly remembrance to you in the days to come.

May I again extend my deepest sympathy at this time.

Very sincerely,

Bert B. Barefoot, Judge,

Southern District.

Many sorrow with you,
You do not grieve alone,
Other hearts are heavy
With the sadness you have known,
Others, too, would comfort
If they but knew the way,
For many are the hearts that know
The loss that's yours today.

I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead,-He is just away!
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land,

And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.

And you-O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return,--

Think of his faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here;
Think of him still as the same, I say:
He is not dead-he is just away!

Dear Mrs. Cutlip:

I am deeply grieved by the news of your bereavement, and beg you to accept the expression of my profound sympathy.

In the practice of law I was impressed with Guy's vigor both of body and of mind. On the bench he was a profound scholar and an eminent jurist. All the mental virtues came into full bloom in your splendid husband. Oklahoma has lost one of her most useful and valued citizens.

May every consolation be granted you in your supreme sorrow.

Very sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Cutlip:

Having just learned of the passing of Judge Cutlip I desire to express to you my sincerest sympathy in your bereavement.

Judge Cutlip was a man honored and revered by the bench and the bar of Oklahoma. He was noted for his fairness to all who appeared before him and particularly his sympathies for the under privileged. Every lawyer was always delighted for the opportunity to appear in his court. His passing has been a distinct shock to the bar of the State of Oklahoma.

Mrs. Byrum joins me in extending our deepest sympathy.

Sincerely yours,
