Dear Mr. Cullif:

This morning's paper brings the sad news of the great sorrow that has come to you - in the passing from us - of your dear husband - Judge Cullif.

My heart goes out to you in love and deepest sympathy; at this time when words and offers - more of comfort - are so empty.

I am sure you will be brave and meet the inevitable, and try to adjust yourself to the problems and conditions that may come.

Dear Amo.

We know at a time like this words are inadequate but we wish to express to you and Maxine our sincere sympathy.
If a funeral could possibly be called beautiful, that was the most beautiful service we ever saw, so many beautiful flowers, so many old friends from both far and near, and so many nice things said, all of which were true.
Dont think we ever saw anything more beautifully impressive than when all those old friends filed in and sat down together.
In our opinion Oklahoma and Seminole County lost one of their greatest men. He lived and died like we hope to,

with all his friends loving him.

Sincerely,
The Glovers.
