MRS C GUY CUTLIP=

WE ARE DEEPLY GRIEVED TO LEARN OF YOUR GREAT LOSS.

OUR HEARTS GO OUT TO YOU WITH WARMEST SYMPATHY IN

YOUR BEREAVEMENT=

BILL & IRENE KEY.

Tuesday

Dear Mrs Cutlip and Maxine

I was grieved to learn of your great loss, and I want you to know I am thinking of you at this sad time.

Mr Kincaid and Wesley
join me in extending to you our deepest sympathy

Sincerely,

Eleanor P Kincaid

(Mrs J Kincaid)

1123 N Okla

Oklahoma City.

Please accept deepest sympathy from me over the passing from life of your dear-good husband. He was one of the outstanding men of Oklahoma - and held in high esteem by all who had the pleasure of an acquaintance with him. Among the hosts of friends to mourn his loss. I feel deeply the loss of a valued friend and the Oklahoma Memorial Association a good officer - Historian.

We had planned to commemorate him next November - now it will be to memorialize him. I trust that God the Great Comforter - will strengthen and sustain you in your bereavement.

Sincerely

Anna Brasius Kohn.

you cailed have Maxine there & hope Little Mary and Mildred have been some com fort to you.
The girls and I sent flowers from Shamnee, hope they got there alright.
I'm so glad I got to have that lovely visit in your home last summer.
Too bad the world don't have more men like Guy was. I know he had a lot of friends. Write to me when you can & remember I love you. Mary L.

MARY LACY

My dear sister, -
How I do wish I was there with you, Amos.
I've been "kin" to you
for so many years
and believe I could be a little comfort
to you if we were
to-gether
I know you have felt
for some time that Guy couldnt ever get well, but when

The end did come, I'm sure it was a terrible shock and hard to believe and bear.

The deaths in your family are the closest to me I've ever experienced, never having had one in my immediate family.

Grady's mother passed away on Thomas day of last year. She was so sweet and good & I loved her so. I've been blessed with two good mothers in law and God has been kind to me in sparing my own mother for so long. She is seventy one now and so well and cheerful all the time. I wish I was more like her.

I'm so sorry Bess has been sick & so unfortunate she couldn't be with you at this time when you really needed her so much. I'm glad

Sincere sympathy
to you
in your sorrow.

Mr. & Mrs. A. F. Lilligen

My dear friend: Because my sympathy is very great for you tonight I am impelled to give you three beautiful truths:

"This then is the message which we have heard of him and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all." I John I: 5.

"Because life is God, life must be eternal, self-existent." S+H.C. 287

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.

My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil; he shall preserve thy soul."

The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming
in from this time forth,
and even for evermore."
Psalms 121.

Because man co-exists with God, you cannot bury man.
He has only passed from your sight but he is near~~er~~ er you now than he has ever been.

The real still lives and
cannot die.

My sincere sympathy for you, your daughter and all of the sorrowing ones.

Lovingly.

Mrs Guy Cutlips,

Dear Mrs Cutlips -

We are so sorry,
it seems that ~~some~~ it - all up,
seems that ~~some~~ loving friends
Do know that - loving hearts, and hearts attuned to yours, ~~has~~, and will strengthen you.

The joy of the years gone by are a store-house ~~from~~ which you will draw on always.

I am joining you in the feeling that there is ~~no~~ more cause for peace in the partnership that has been happy, and having been, will always be yours - than any thing in the world, Because you loved - the love is

you have him still - love is dead
not gone - its when while love
that we ~~lose~~ they live on in our hearts.
Linda
that we ~~lose~~ they my tenderest love Hazel
