

You cannot say, you must not say That he is dead. He is just away!
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand

He has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there;
So think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here,

Think of him still as the same, and say
He is not dead, he is just away!

My dear Mrs Cutlip:

Knowing as many of us do from experience how deep your sorrow must be we also know that there is little that anyone can say or do to make your grief any the less. yet we cannot refrain from offering our sincerest sympathy, and along with it the hope that Time, which softens all things, will make even this easier to bear.

Most sincerely yours
Members of the Seventh District
