Dear Mrs. Cutlip:

The Lion's Club of McAlester desires to convey to you a message of sympathy and sorrow that the club as a body feels, and that each individual member feels, because of the death of your husband.

He was so thoroughly human, so easily and deeply touched by the problems of humanity that Lionism seeks to alleviate that he represented to us an embodiment of the outstanding characteristics we would want our membership to have. Each individual generally tries to do his best, but many are handicapped. They have not the splendid capabilities and the vital powers that marked Judge Cutlip. We know what our order has lost and it brings to us a sense of deepest sorrow because it will be hard for us to find one to fill his shoes.

Please accept this token of our esteem for him while he lived, and our appreciation of our loss when he is gone.

Done by order of the club.

Lion's Club of McAlester

*Deceased

My Dear Mrs. Butlip.
I want to tell you how very sorry I am for you, and extend the sympathy of all Pioneer members in Okla.

We are sad to have you pass through this sad experience of parting from your dear husband. Just at the time when he could be of help to you and share the pleasures of the high office you hold. I am sure you know a power higher than human hands and hearts can offer will sustain you. Lean heavily upon that arm.
Sincerely yours,
Mrs. J. A. Ross.

My dear president,

I was very sorry to hear of your husband being ill and at this time I am sending greetings to you from both The Modern Priscilla and Oologah Sunshine clubs. We sincerely hope he is on the high road to recovery or completely well at this writing.

I am also sending you a list of the Oologah Sunshine members and they will send their year books soon.

Hoping this will find you and yours well and happy I am very sincerely yours
