VETERINARIAN
SMALL ANIMAL HOSPITAL
WEWOKA, OKLAHOMA

Janjary 25, 1958.

Mrs. C. Guy Cutlip,
Wewoka, Okla.

My dear Mrs. Cutlip:-

I tender you my profound and deepest sympathy, in this your dark hour of sorrow. The loved and loving husband, Father and friend, has left us---has gone on that long journey which will take him, I am sure, to the gates of a most wonderful hereafter. I realize, Mrs. Cutlip, that no word of mine can in any measure assuage your grief; yet, I tender you the consolation that the "pale" messenger, who never tires nor never pities the messenger who sooner or later will knock at the door of you and I, has come to guide into that blissful hereafter of which hope is the creator and faith the defender, a spirit that needed no purification to fit for the companionship of the good.

Tears dot the page as I write. Every cloud has a silver lining. Be of good cheer.

Your friend truly,

Muskogee Okla
