

Legion Will Discuss League For Industrial Democracy

A warm session of Joe Carson Post of The American Legion is in store at the Hut at 8th and Owasso tonight.

R. M. Broach, Chairman of the Americanism Committee, will present the material that has been accumulated concerning the history, the aims, and the purposes of the League for Industrial Democracy.

W. Guy Tetrick, Pastor of the University Methodist Church and a Past Commander of Joe Carson Post, who introduced one of the speakers on the lecture course which was held in the Boston Avenue Methodist Church, under the auspices of the League For Industrial Democracy, has stated that he will speak in defense of this organization.

Frank S. Hugill, Commander of Joe Carson Post, has promised a statement of the policy of the Legion following this discussion.
