Words by Anna Brosius Korn

Tune, "America"

Beloved State, to thee
We pledge our loyalty,
Mother of all;
For thy protecting care,
And thy great love we share,
Prosperity everywhere,
Grateful we are.

Land of the pioneer,
Home of the sage and seer,
We thee adore.
We'll fight with all our might,
For all that's just and right,
'Gainst foes that seek to blight,
Thy blessed name.

Long may thy banner wave,
O'er all thy patriots brave,
From sea to sea.
Striving at last to win,
Laurels all free from sin,
From battles entered in
Led by these hosts.

God's benediction rest
On thee whom we love best,
Oklahoma
Be Thou her Guiding Star,
In every trying hour,
Uphold her by Thy power,
Great God, we pray.

Our Sunday School attendance last Sunday was 1801. For several weeks now we have been around the 1800 mark. A cordial invitation is extended to all who are not enrolled in our school.

Our six Endeavor societies will hold their meetings as usual this evening prior to the evening service. One week from tonight they are planning a union social hour and meeting.

Are the young people in your home enjoying the advantages offered by your church in the way of week-time activities? We have Boy Rangers, Intermediate Girls' Club, four Boy Scout troops, three basketball teams, Endeavor social hours, and Senior Girls' Club.

Our First Building

The bell in the tower of this building was the first to broadcast to Tulsa the news of the signing of the Statehood Bill. This bell now hangs in the tower of the administration building of the University of Tulsa.

OKLAHOMA STATE SONG

I give you a land of sun and flowers,
 And summer the whole year long.
 I give you a land where the golden hours
 Roll by to the mocking bird's song.
 Where the cotton blooms 'neath the southern sun,
 And the vintage hangs thick on the vine,
 A land whose story has just begun,
 This wonderful land of mine.

A land where the fields of golden grain,
 Like waves on a sun-lit sea,
 As it bends to the breezes that sweep the plain,
 Waves a welcome to you and me.
 Where the corn grows high
 'Neath the smiling sky,
 And the quail whistles low in the grass
 And fruit trees greet with a burden sweet
 And perfume the winds that pass.

CHORUS

Oklahoma, Oklahoma,
 Fairest daughter of the West.
 Oklahoma, Oklahoma,
 'Tis the land I love the best.
 We have often sung your praises,
 But we have not told the half,
 So I give you, Oklahoma,
 'Tis a toast we all can quaff.
