

THE PRINCIPAL CHIEF
OF THE
CREEK INDIAN NATION
IN OKLAHOMA

Wetumka, Oklahoma.
February 15, 1936.

Honorable C. Guy Cutlip,
Judge Superior Court,
Seminole County,
Seminole, Oklahoma.

Dear Judge:

This will acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 13th inst. enclosing therein two releases to be signed by one Lizzie Yahola.

In replying thereto, I beg to advise that Lizzie Yahola, died some 5 or 6 years ago, her estate had been administred and determined through the Seminole County Court and by John Smith, Administrator.

Lizzie Yahola, had two sons viz: Willie and James Yahola, but they had died also.

Willie Yahola, left his wife Annie Yahola and three children, as his legal heirs.

James Yahola, left his wife Polly Yahola and three children, as his legal heirs.

I respectfully refer you this matter to Mr. V. R. Biggers, of Wewoka, Oklahoma, who is still handling the affairs of Mr. Smith.

I am sorry that I couldn't do much for you at this time but hope to do more in the future.

I am proud and happy to be working for a Superior Judge, as I consider it to be an honor for rendering such service.

In closing, I thank you very much for your comments and congratulations upon me, as Chief.

Furthermore, I want you to understand that I will continue to render my service for you, even more so, if you was a candidate and are running for Governor of Oklahoma.

Sincerely yours,

W. L. Conard
