December 24th, 1930.

Mr. Guy Cutlip,
Attorney at Law,
Wewoka, Oklahoma.

Dear Mr. Cutlip:

In re: McGeachy vs. Haight,
No. 13556.

Upon returning to the office the writer found upon his desk copies of the Separate answers of Mabel Garner and R. D. Speegle, the originals of which we presume you filed.

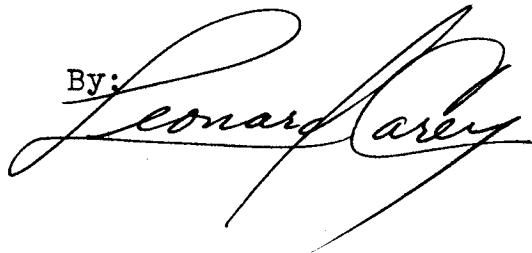

When you filed motions to quash in this case you also included the defendant, J. E. Patterson, and when this matter came up on the motions to quash you entered the appearance of Mr. J. E. Patterson along with the defendants, R. D. Speegle and Mabel Garner, although we are of the opinion that J. E. Patterson was already in Court in proper order. We are wondering, however, if it was your intention to file an answer on behalf of J. E. Patterson, or if you have overlooked this matter.

We are simply calling it to your attention and wish you would advise us in this connection.

Yours very truly,

Stanard & Carey,
