My Dear Guy:

I see where they cut a lot of capers over, around and about you in Seminole. They put you on a sort of mental pedestal and let all the fidos, big and little, bark at you to their heart's content.

yet it was pretty nice of that bunch of fellows to give you a few meters of the credit due you for what you have done for Seminole county. If they wanted the real sentiment of the people they should have had one or two of the old Indians to tell them you are "heap much damn good man."

I rejoice with you in the honor shown you, but some of them, in dispensing verbal flowers so freely, may have overlooked a few of the most choice buds, so just think all the good things you can of yourself, reach our your hands, as it were, and take from me all the good things the other fellows overlooked.

There are some choice aromas they did not even know of that I wish to give you. This is the sweetest perfume of life, distilled through a friendship of sincerest affection for an old scout that knows the game and shoots straight.

If I'm ever haled into your court on a charge of deriding that simp in the white house I'll plead guilty and not ask for mercy of the court.

Cordially

Tell Biggers I wish I could have seen him, smearing himself over Seminole and adjoining counties. He's a prince of good fellows but has a bum bootlegger.
