Dear Judge Cutlip:

I am inclosing you herewith letters I received from members of the Bar Commission and others in answer to my invitation on behalf of the Bar Association for them to be present at the banquet tendered you in Seminole, on July 14th.

A great many of these letters contain some nice things about you and I thought that you possibly should like to preserve them and I am inclosing you almost the entire file so that you may keep what you desire to and destroy the rest.

Kindest regards,

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Biggers:

In connection with your banquet for Judge Guy C. Cutlip, on Tuesday evening, July 14, 1931, I find that I will be engaged in hearings before the Federal Trade Commission at Oklahoma City during the entire week, beginning July 13. Hearings recessed yesterday until Monday morning. This makes it impossible for me to attend your banquet, unless there should be some recess in the hearings, or unless I can arrange for an early adjournment on Tuesday afternoon, and drive from Oklahoma City to Wewoka for the banquet Tuesday evening, which I will try to do if possible. I regret the circumstances. It would give me considerable pleasure to be present at the banquet, and assist in doing honor to Judge Cutlip, and also meet the members of your Bar Association, but, of course, unless I can make some arrangements, as indicated, I will have to forego these pleasures. If I am not present at the banquet, I trust you will explain the circumstances to Judge Cutlip, and also express my appreciation to the members of the Seminole County Bar Association for the invitation and my sincere regrets that unavoidable conditions prevent me from being present.

My association with Judge Cutlip on the Board of Governors, of the Oklahoma State Bar and personally, has convinced me that he is a worthy citizen, an able lawyer, a true friend, and a man of whom any community may well be proud, and such associations have been, indeed, pleasant, and I trust they may be renewed and continued.

Yours very sincerely,

Guy Cutlip.

I have deferred answering in the hopes that I could inform you of my acceptance of this very courteous invitation, but I find my business engagements such that it will be impossible for me to attend.

I esteem Judge Cutlip highly as a man, recognize his justly earned eminence as a lawyer, and appreciate the splendid work which he did as a member of the Board of Governors of the Oklahoma State Bar; and for those reasons I was anxious to attend this banquet and join his fellow citizens and fellow lawyers in doing honor to him, and I assure you that I sincerely regret my inability to do so.

My Dear Sir;

I have your kind invitation of July 6th, in which you invite me to attend the banquet to be given in honor of Judge Cutlip on June 14th. Nothing would please me more than to be present at this banquet, but I regret to say that I will not be able to be there at that time. It is necessary for me to be in Tulsa the latter part of this week, and I will probably have to be in St. Louis next week. While I had never met Judge Cutlip until I met him as a member of the Board of Governors, I have learned to like him very much. He is one of the most likeable characters I believe I have ever met, and I assure you that it is with much regret that we parted with Guy as a member of our Board of Governors.

Thanking you and assuring you that it is with utmost regret that I will be unable to be present, I am,
