

Arkansas to use here. All we used here.

(Yeah.)

John Gibson was fine man and he always used to be for Indians (not clear).

(Yeah, if she lived to over a hundred then she must--)

Yeah over a hundred years old. I don't remember just, exactly, but it was over 100 years.

(Yeah.)

I know (not clear) bank fixed a cornerstone for her, you know. Yeah she was a wonderful old lady. We used to live right across the street from John Silver-smith. He was my uncle.

(Yeah.)

He lived right across the street, but I don't know, you just go on into town and you go on up there and you cross over there and there's this house back over there I guess, that's where John Silversmith was raised.

MR. FIELDS HAS HIS OWN PHILOSOPHY CONCERNING PEOPLE TODAY

(Well did he have a big family, too?)

Who John? Yeah, he had a big family. The kids was my first cousins. I just wonder (not clear).

(Yeah.)

Might have seen some of 'em. Yeah, but they wouldn't believe nothing and some didn't know that.

(That's right.)

Wouldn't believe nothing you told 'em and seem like everybody got along better that way.

(Sure.)

(Mr. Fields statement not clear).

(That's right.)

And not it's not that way (not clear)
