

prayer and our veterans leave and that will make us happy and the--seeing our boys off and seeing them home, we just think that be great which it was.)

(Only when do you sing that song with your festivities? Is anyone--can anyone dance to that song or is it just restricted to the members?)

Well, I imagine any American War Mother member could get up and join with the American War Mothers Chapter of any kind.

(What I mean to say, not like if someone would want to have a special song sang for a veteran of any kind would they be allowed to use that song?)

But sometimes they have their own songs.

(Well, I mean, could that be used, that song?)

Yes.

(That's what it is for, hun?)

That's what it's for.

(I mean, if like I wanted to--if I had a dance with one of my nephews in it, if I wanted a song, I could use that song for them to dance.)

The War Mothers Chapter have to get up, you know.

(I was just saying if they had a dance for Willard Brown over and these other club--they came in and had their own club songs like the War Dance Committee had their songs sang and the Pawnee Homecoming Veterans had theirs sang and the other War Mothers had their songs sang. And the old lady Mrs. Brown had a song sang for Willard, himself. I don't recall.)

Special song.

(Yeah, I don't recall what these special songs were, whose song it was but Mr. Black, he was the emcee at that time. Well, it seems like you had quite a lengthy organization, I mean, quite a lengthy time for it to be going on since there are about 25 years. Now, do you, there's not too many
