

for just two names. If they had to do that, wouldn't they gripe.

(Un-hun.)

Here are some of the War Mother People right here. Move them books.

(Here.)

(sentence not clear) shows here--it is organized 1917.

(That's way back there, isn't it?)

And chartered in 1923, isn't it?

(That it is.)

Republication office is 2615 Woodellie Place North West, Washington, D.C.

Oh, it was organized in 1923.

(Isn't this last few years--are you in it? Could you tell us about any of the conventions you have attended in the last few years, national conventions. Where it was?)

Oh, we had things to settle at conventions in other state. I remember attending one in Atlanta, Georgia, Atlantic City, New Jersey.

(Atlantic City, New Jersey?)

Yeah; Atlantic City, New Jersey. And I attend one at St. Louis, one is Kansas City. And there is several of them I didn't get to make, different places.

(Did you go to that one they had in Boston?)

I didn't get to go to it.

(Well, how did you find those conventions?)

How do you find them? Looked.

(How did you enjoy them or what did you do?)

You mean, how we got there? Why, sure we had meetings every morning like 8:30 until noon. We come back at 1:30 until 4, maybe 4:30. Then, we had banquets and a lot of everything. We always have a memorial services.

Course, then, when we go to convention, above all, we mothers--members who
