

this is just a rough form. I move that we adopt this resolution.

(Reverend Terry Walker will interpret the resolution in Seminole.)

(This part of tape is in Seminole language for about two minutes.)

(End of Side A.)

Side B.

(This tape is continued from Side A)

Unidentified man: I make a motion that we adopt this resolution.

Unidentified man: It's already--and Mr. Larney seconded it.

Virgil Harrington: We are ready for questions if the chair is. Let's vote on it.

(Seminole language spoken for about 2 minutes of tape.)

This resolution (not clear)--election committee. When elections are over, then there won't be nothing left. We have already figured out part of them, we already did south, west, north and--(some Seminole conversation in background). Let's have a vote. (much conversation in background and laughter). (More Seminole conversation)

(The resolution was adopted unanimously. John Larney now talking.)

Unidentified man: Brother Larney I am going to tell you what I said, just in case you don't know. There is some people over here who don't understand it.

(not clear) I am going back again and tell it (not clear)--have a chief appointed by a secretary. (Seminole conversation and others in background.)

Unidentified man: He withdrew his regular motion and now pass seven--

(conversation in background.) He withdraws and does (?) seven. (Laughter)

Unidentified man: Just vote on seven. You can't--you have to vote on seven first.

Unidentified man: Now listen now--they've already adopted a resolution--

(There is too much mixed conversation in background to understand about 2 minutes of tape).

Unidentified man: Mr. Chairman, I move we amend the resolution to include Mr.
