Waiker is one member of the election committee.) Unidentified man: Louis--
Louis Harjo: Uh-huh. (conversation going on froq' several people at one time:) Unideńtified man: Mr. Chairman--Mr. King, you will have to have a secretary for this committee, if she is a member, she can't pe secretary (ndt clear) (More Seminole and other conversations going on at same time for about 2 minutes. Election of officers, being conducted.) . Unidentified man: I nominate Bob Miller. Unidentified man: Who?

Unidentified man: Bob Miller. (Man speaking Sempnole for about 5 minutes of tape and they are discuśsing John Larney and Bob Miller. They seem to ble voting on the full slate of officers. Some of this conversation can be understood in part, but mostly it is in the Seminole language. The whole of the electfons. take about 10 minutes of tape. 2

Unidentified man: Isn't he ex-officio'? Won't he be a member ex-efficiö? Virgil Harrington: Well, the chairman hasn't decided. Mr. Chairman, it will be up to you'll to decide. If your resolution said these people had full complete control and authority. (Much conversation going on at same time and parts of it in Seminole.)

Unidentified man reading list of names-Amos Tiger, George Crain and Richard Bemo and Rpy Harjo. (Laughter) All right--Amos Tiger--(Seminole)--Joe Spain', (Seminole conversation in background and continued election of officers.) riğht, the last one Roy Harjo. Amos Tiger. (much conversation). . Unidentified man: Mr. Chairman, I still nominate Bob Mrler. Chairman: How's that?

Unidentifieđ man: Bob Miller. (short eonversation in Semingle.)
Unidentified man: Weren't they ten? (More conversation at same time, and continued reading of names.)

