

(Begging them for things and so on.)

Well I wrote it for him anyway and he just copied it over, you know, what his name is what he bought you know with his money.

(Well now that's through the Methodist church, huh? That CCF? Christian Children's Fund.)

I don't know what church that's from. I thought maybe it was just you know all churches together.

(United? It could be. I'm not sure. It could be. When you said that Methodist group I ---)

Yeah, I think anybody can take a sponsor. I mean anybody can sponsor a child.

FREE LUNCHESES FOR CHILDREN

(Well your children up there at Skelly, do they get free lunches?)

Yes, all of them.

(They don't give them any static about it, huh?)

No.

(Do they feed them pretty good?)

Yeah, they feed them pretty good. I've been down there--oh, several times but I know I ate down there one time and I don't remember just what they had now but it was pretty good and they give them milk or some kind of juice, you know, before school time in the mornings when they get there.

(Well, that's good. They--I think they're supposed to but sometimes they don't.)

Yeah, I've heard that and some places they don't. But down at our school, they handle things pretty well.

VERY FEW INDIAN TEACHERS OR SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS

(Do they have any Cherokee teachers down there?)

No, they had one once and the board fired her.

(Wonder why?)
