

Mr. King: Not over five.

But some of the allottees, I doubt if they have any of their land, do they?

Mr. King: Mary RedEagle sold hers back in, what the 20's?

She has interest in some.

Mr. King: Alice Gilmore. She's a young one. She's a forty acre allottee.

I think at this time I'm going to have to ask you talk to old Pearl one of these days. Maybe she can give you more information. I think that will start you.

CATHOLIC AND QUAKER WERE THE LEADING CHURCHES

(Were there. . . wait, just one thing. Were there any churches? What were the religions that were around here? I mean I'm thinking of. . . this is kind of a leading question. . . but I'm thinking of like on the Sac and Fox reservation how first they wouldn't let any missionaries come in and then later how they came. What was the situation around here?)

Well, you had your Catholics. You had your Quakers.

Mrs. Nieberding: Under the peace policy the reason they didn't come in, they couldn't come in. Under President Grant it couldn't be anything but Quaker.
