

the Female Seminary for the scholastic year, $1880. These with other appropriations make the grand total over $76000. Sheriff's deputies, Simon and Rusk came in late Monday evening with Joe Tulsa, Wiley Stem, Wasasa, and James Larney charged with murder. And William Howard and Wesley Sugar, Joe Amecha, Art Davis, and Kart Koo-la--oo charged with Larceny. And Charles Swimmer and James Broadaxe charged with introducing and so forth. Tulsa, Still, Wasasa and Larney are the four Creek Indians arrested for complacency in the recent killings of Mose McIntosh by the Wesley Barnett gang. Wally McIntosh father of Mose accompanied by ex-governor Perryman and G. W. Grayson of Eufaula--arrive here Saturday for the purpose of seeing what could be done with them. The other four were implicated in the killing of McIntosh are Wesley Barnett, Sam Lop-ka, Jess Berryhill and Gibson Buzzard, who are still at large, but are likely to be captured or killed before a great while as the law abiding citizens of the country are determined to get rid of them. And this is quoted from the Fort Smith Elevator reprinted in the Telephone. And quoting from the editorial of this same newspaper. "The Cherokees never bluff, but they contend for their treaty and just rights as other brave, but weak people of the earth do. Our people knew what they did. When they leased the Strip they finally realized the meaning and intent of the Secretary of the Interior's letter on the subject of leasing of the strip. To the Springer, Oklahoma Bill what nation of people on earth would not condemn so iniquitous a measure--a measure that seeks to rob and pauperize a weak people to satisfy the demands of the lot of the earth free booters and such like. God reigns and Cherokee rights will be maintained."

MUCH ABOUT THE INSANE ASYLUM

(Now where was that insane asylum, Mrs. Wilhite?)
