

Yeah. When they rye, they'd travel.

(Yeah.)

Yeah, Sixkiller used to come way down here.

(Well. They had a big farm, didn't they?)

Oh, yeah. Lot of it's growed up.

(Yeah.)

Like down home.

ALLOTMENT LOCATIONS

Well, I got my allotment at Collinsville.

(Yeah.)

Two miles east of town not far from the (words not clear) Illinois River. Got four hundred acres out there. He worked for the government around here in this territory.

(Yeah.)

Let's see, what in the world was his name, some kind of (word not clear) Then there used to be a (word not clear) down here. He died several-- oh not too long--about three years ago. He died up at Pryor. He was eighty something when he died. They used to live over here.

(Yeah.)

Bill Downing and George Downing were brothers.

NO GRIST MILLS IN EARLY DAYS

(Where was the grist mill when you were a young fellow?)

We didn't have none around here.

(Didn't have none.)

No, we had--we went to mill in Arkansas.

(Yeah. What they call Dutch Mills.)

No. Cincinnati.

(Oh, Cincinnati.)
