(Did you ever know that fellow Davis that accumulated that big gun collection over there at Claremore?)

Yeah, I know him.

Well, that's what they say. The (word not clear) building up there.

Warehouse north of his place about three blocks. And they're going to moved that collection up there. I don't know. It's alright. But I don't think that (words not clear) Why you know they have keepers there all the time. Probably they going to keep this gun collection too.

Cause I know this boy over here. He's kin to Davis' wife.
