BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Guy Froman is about 65 years of age. His parents died when he was very young--father when he was two years old and mother when he was seven. He was sent to a Catholic Mission School and Seneca Indian School at Wyandotte, Oklahoma, and then spent five years at a Sanatorium in Idaho. After leaving the sanatorium in Idaho he came to Chilocco Indian School where he graduated in 1922. Mr. Froman was elected Chief of the Peoria Tribe in 1947 and still holds this position at this time.
