

T-422-4 (Fourth of Four Interviews)
LUCINDA CRITTENDON KING, CHEROKEE
INTERVIEWED BY: J. W. TYNER
INTERVIEW DATE: APRIL 29, 1969
TRANSCRIBED BY: DARLENE FIELDS

GENERAL SUBJECT: PRESERVING FOODS; TREATMENT AND CURE FOR ILLNESS

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

BRIEF INTRODUCTION

FAMILY OF TOM PUMPKIN - CRITTENDON

OTHER FAMILIES WHO LIVED IN PUMPKIN HOLLOW.

SCHOOLS IN EARLY DAYS

CHURCH IN EARLY DAYS

OLD CEMETERIES

NO DOCTORS IN EARLY DAYS - HOME REMEDIES AND TREATMENT

PRESERVATION OF FOODS

FAMILY LOCATIONS IN EARLY DAYS

EARLY DAY COMMUNITY ACTIVITY

AFTER MOTHER'S DEATH SHE HELPED CARE FOR LITTLE ONES - SANITATION

TAHLEQUAH IS GROWING

NURSING HOMES TODAY

MORE ABOUT FOOD - EGGS AT FIVE CENTS PER DOZEN

STORY ABOUT A QUILT - KEEPSAKES

WONDER ABOUT PHOTOGRAPHY IN EARLY DAYS

PEOPLE IN PUMPKIN HOLLOW

PREACHERS AND TEACHERS - SCHOOL - HARDTIMES

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT

Lucinda Crittenden King is 69 years old. She was born and raised in the Pumpkin Hollow Community in Cherokee County and still lives in this same area. Mrs. King is full blood Cherokee. Her parents were Elm Crittenden and Carrie Ross who were long time residents of this community.

NOTE; The other interviews on this tape are: Ben Henry, Cherokee
Rufus Lacie, Cherokee
Lucinda S. Wilhite, Cherokee