

(Yes, Tom. Well, let's see then Tom Pumpkin, he must have been the original settler here.)

Yeah, he was here for many a year just like grandpa was.

(Yes.)

Grandpa was here for many a year.

(Well, it's such a beautiful place to make your home.)

Yeah, up there in that Pumpkin Hollow, you know, and they had lots of houses then, you know.

(That's right.)

But they have all removed all the houses out except this rock house. One of Eli's girls bought that, you know, and she passed away about two months ago.

(sentencenot clear)

(Well.)

{Interruption)

This old place down here. My brother owned that. My other brother bought it then after the other one passed away.

(Interruption)

OTHER FAMILIES WHO LIVED IN PUMPKIN HOLLOW

(Back in the old days who were some of the Indian families that lived in these hollows here? There are some of the Groundhogs that lived here.)

Yeah. Joe, Joe Groundhog. Then Eric Deerwater.

(Yeah.)

He lived down here around--Up here Joe Kirk lived up there.

(Yeah.)

(sentence not clear) Way up the hollow here, I guess, Tooley Hollow, Burkham lived up there. He's still living, but he's getting old too.
