

They had more than one egg around. People nowadays cook one around.

(No, now lot of time, people nowadays they reached a point where maybe they just drink one cup of coffee and eat a piece of toast and that's breakfast.)

That's right.

(Well, something we can't help, changing times but--)

FAMILY LOCATIONS IN EARLY DAYS

(Has your home here always had all these cedar trees and evergreens?)

Yeah. Some people asked me if I set them out. I told them, "No, they just grew here, you know." Just like they are now.

(It's beautiful here.)

Yeah, everybody seems to like it here. You know everybody that comes here. (interruption) Get him a cabin (words not clear). And I told him when I sold that twenty acres across the river. Decided I'd keep the rest of it over here.

(Yes, ma'am.)

I have ninety-five acres out here.

(Let's see what was your grandfather and grandmother? Where they from here too?)

Yeah. Yeah, grandfather was raised around Proctor up there, you know.

(Yeah.)

Lot of his folks were buried at Proctor.

(Yeah. Now he was a Crittenden, wasn't he?)

Yeah.

(Now your grandmother, what family did she come from?)

Well, let me see. What was her name? I can't think of it right off.

(Well, what family did your mother come from?)

My mother was a Ross.
