

Yes. It's about four miles up on the hill there, you know.

(Yeah.)

Got a big church house there, you know.

(Yeah.)

They have that association there every year, you know. Lot people go there.

(Yeah.)

(interruption)

(Yeah, I've heard a lot about that place there.)

Yeah. It's a sight on earth, the people go there.

(Well.)

Let's see, I believe in September. Lot of people go there and there's some Cherokees comes out for it.

AFTER MOTHER'S DEATH SHE HELPED TO CARE FOR LITTLE ONES - SANITATION

I was just eleven years old and see I had to take care of the little kids till they got big enough to go to school.

(I see.)

Then they put them in Sequoyah.

(Yeah.)

They went to the government. I was the only one--me and my oldest brother didn't go to school very much.

(Yeah, that makes a lot of difference when you have those responsibilities?)

Christine now was a little bitty baby--was just nine months old when mama died. We had to--as I say, people say now you have to sterilize this, you have to do this and that. Us kids didn't know no better.

(Well.)

We just had a little old bucket, you know.

(Yeah.)

We just put it on a fireplace. We had a fireplace and we just sit this
