

to move--they think they're moving that hospital out there, they say, you know. I don't know.

(Tahat'll be fine. They need more room out there.)

Because it's kind of crowded there you know--getting in and out. They haven't got no way to park hardly there. 'Course it's pretty handy there. (sentence not clear) go from out there.

NURSING HOMES TODAY

(Oh, yes. I've noticed now they have several rest homes, nursing homes in town.)

Yes, they have.

(I get to thinking what did the folks do a long time ago when they didn't have a place for the old people?)

Why they just kept them at home, didn't they?

(They kept them right at home and done just as good.)

Yeah, I know. And they were just as happy as they could be at home, you know.

(Why sure.)

And you take my husband, his grandmother and two her kids you know--

After her husband died, you know. That boy and girl just--they just lived there with'em. So she finally died--finally the old boy died--the girl finally died.

(Well.)

They just all lived there, you know, and just went ahead just like they always were. Make their garden and everything.

MORE ABOUT FOOD - EGGS FIVE CENTS PER DOZEN

(Well, now back a long time ago people didn't go hungry, did they?)
