Let's just face up to it.

(All the people start talking.)

Mr. Clement: This is something. As long as it's clean and neat this is (not clear) we're worried about.

(Several people start talking.)

(Participant, man:) I went in one the other day and..it had three rooms and eleven people. Shack's about to fall down and you wonder about those people. Just how they feel. So it ain't no use worrying about it.

(Participant, man:) Four of them right there in a row and one of them giving the neighbors a little bit of trouble with too many people around there. Too late hours and too many cars.

(Participant, man:) To this really this..this housing program..so really this..this special application right here is all. If there's any papers have to come we'll get 'em here. In looking at this (not clear) now..now on this. this space sheet on here shows uh this form 245247 should be submitted 6 copies.

Mr. Clement: We need three copies of that is what we need instead of six.

(Participant, man:) Three's all right, huh? And I think that's..that's about all on this first page needs to be changed. And on the second page here I'll show on this this will be new construction, turnkey and you'll need to show it working. Now does this show mutual help on here any place.

(Participant, man:) No, just low rent.

Mr. Clement: Now you're going to make the application for mutual help?

(Participant, lady:) Mutual help and low rent.

Mr. Clement: And low rent. Both.

(Participant, lady) Both

Mr. Clement: Well, uh now do you know yet. Whether you want to go conventional, new construction or go turnkey..

(Participant, lady:) Probably want to go turnkey. Mutual help. Just like
