

Mr. Clement: Well, I think the way I talked to Jack Stark, if the city says it's all right and the Housing Authority says it's all right, then we can live with it. Why don't you make a note? If you do have an applicant inside the city limits of Anadarko to either call me and I'll check it out with Mr. Stark so that we can say yay or nay. And what you need to do before we get too far along is and at this point this individual.

(Participant, man:) Well..we can.. we can clear it with them. Probably with the Housing Authority of Anadarko and they will..they will clear it.

Mr. Clement: Right.

(Participant, lady:) Now is this the mutual help?

Mr. Clement: Yeah, mutual help.

(Participant, man:) Now didn't Mr. Stark say this morning that the Public Health couldn't do anything with them?

Mr. Clement: You wouldn't be sweatin' it there anyway. In other words it'd be (not clear) When you get into this public health. If you get into an undeveloped area see...

(Participant, man:) Oh, I see.

Mr. Clement: Uh course your participant would have to pay a deposit on a water heater and so on a sewer tap which would probably come out of his pocket-book and then this wouldn't be a community problem. But you would..

(Participant, lady:) It's possible that we might have two that I know of.

Mr. Clement: Uh another thing, of course, this is the Caddo tribe of Indians.

Uh..but the Delaware and the Wichita are pretty well idle and are sort of relying on the Caddos to get housing for them. Now in this application shouldn't they note this that the Wichita tribes and the Delaware tribes are participating in this also. Se...

(Participant, man:) We have passed a resolution on especially on this conventional low rent housing because you're going to need a whole lot of justifi -
