conditions and need for housing. Anything else that you may come up with.

Now this next page here has to do with the housing that you might have had in last. Because I don't guess you've had anything in last.

(Participant, man:) I think all that would be zero, wouldn't it?

(Mr. ?:) Yes. Zero. Or just show it not applicable. Just type not applicable in there. And let it go at that. And course you want have any turnover rater here yet. And units under reservation or construction. Now you'll have something to put in there on this new program that you have.

(Well now we haven't got 'em under construction.)

Mr. ?: Well, uh...   )

(Participant, man:) It says here course under program reservation or construction.

Mr. ?: Well show it under pre-construction.   And then this next one down here. The applications. Do you have any applications yet?

(Participant, man:) Yes. We've got...

(Participant, lady:) I've got thirty..four out of a hundred and twenty-five we're asking for.

(Participant, man:) We've already picked..

Mr.?: In addition to the first..

(Participant, lady:) Addition to the first twenty.

Mr.?: That is the best justification you can fiel for approval. Is the applications that you have on hand for people that want houses.

(Participant, lady:) I have about thirty right here now.

(Participant, man:) We've got some more too that you haven't got.

(Participant, lady:) Yeah, you have...

Mr. ?: Well make a tabulation of those. The ones that you the ones for elderly and the ones for non-elderly. And the number of bedroom sizes you have made application for and list them in this section here.

(Participant, lady:) Section B.
