

Yeah, fifteenth of--let's see, it's the fifteenth of next month or some-time. There's a lot of them come down here hunting.

(Well, you've always had quail in here, I guess.)

Yes.

(Well, has hunting been good down through here?)

Yeah. Mr. Knight though, during his lifetime, he kept it posted.

(Well.)

But if you go asked him though, he'd let you go ahead then.

(Yeah.)

But the one that he really know, he didn't mind letting them hunt; but ones-- the one he didn't know well, he kind of stingy.

(Yeah.)

Since he's been passed away, why, his daughter don't take care of it like he did when he was living.

(Well, this has always been farming country in here I guess long time.)

Yeah.

OLD HOME PLACE - SCHOOLS

(Where was your home, your original home, Mr. Grisby?)

Way up north of where they--where the Lacie graveyard is.

(Yeah.)

On that same section line, it goes straight on north.

(Uh-hum.)

About three miles.

(Hum.)

Close to three miles.

(Yeah.)

Yeah. The last time I was there, why, that old house was about to fall down.
