

(Uh-huh.)

I think they just hold church now, only.

(Yeah.)

There's quite a few of them Seventh Day Adventists. They got so (words not clear). They sold it.

(Words not clear)

That was in 1912 when I was over there. I went from 1912 to '16.

(Yeah.)

I thought I graduated. (static) got out of school by that.

(Yeah.)

I can see now where I miss by not going on to---

(Oh, yeah, things a fellow always sees that after it's too late.)

JOINED THE NAVY DURING WORLD WAR I

Right after school was out, why, I joined the Navy.

(Yes.)

I was in World War I. I was in the Navy then. The rest of my brothers were in the Army.

(Yeah.)

But they're all dead except me and my sister. She lives at Westville.

(Yeah.)

I had a hard go of it. I kept on working, working, working, kept working to get my old age on top of my veterans.

(Yeah.)

Finally got it.

(Well, that's the only way---)

When you got a little land and a little money in the bank, they won't allow you nothing. Find work--it's hard to get on. But I couldn't pass the exami-
