

(And you built that back in 1929?)

Yeah, we lived here then, me and Maggie.

(Well, didn't that used to be part of your work, Hookey, making chimneys, or laying brick, wasn't it?)

Yeah, just anything in that line, you know.

(Anything in the carpentry and building.)

No.

(Not carpentry, though)

Now mason work is what I do.

(Oh, I see.)

Maggie: How many years ago that time you built that?

It was '29.

(Well, it was 1929 this is '69, that would be forty years, Mom.)

Maggie: That's how long we been married, you know.

Longer than that. We lived here then. Way back yonder in '25.

MAIL ORDER MUSIC LESSONS - SMALL BAND - FOUR GERMAN BROTHERS

(Well, didn't you used to be a musician and go around and play the guitars, too, at some of those socials?)

Well, I quit 'round in '25--wait a minute--not that late about '30, wasn't it, when I quit playing?

Maggie: Yeah.

Yeah, I still played at this towns when me and her was together. I just by myself I quit that. I used to play with them--them Lukembill Boys--John.

(Lukembill)

Uh-huh. They was German, all brothers, four of 'em. They come from Hawaiian Islands somewhere. I got in with 'em in 1919. That's a long time ago. We got to playing me and this guy here, I don't know, I used to have a guitar. I'
